

I object to the stand that the Sinclair Corporation is taking by "demanding" that its affiliates air any materials. The press should be free to make such decisions. Local control is important in a free press.